Soon

The violets will tell
The year is young again.

Look after the pansies and the flower beds.

The business men say the streets must be macadamized.

The county offices are being moved to the Masonic building this week.

Communication from Washington had to be laid over till next week.

The measles are raging in LaPlata, whole families are stricken. Only one death up to date.

We hope to be able to give the date of the Mendelssohn Quintette club concert in our next issue.

Correspondent from Liberty did not give his name. We can not publish anonymous communications.

The bridge at Keokuk on the M. I. & N. Ry. over the Des Moines river was carried away by the ice Monday and all trains have to be sent over the Q. M. & P. via Quincy.

Revs. Chambliss and Squires have been holding protracted meeting at Millard for the past two weeks with thirty conversions and a very wide spread interest.

We call the attention of those having legal business to the card of P. F. Greenwood. He can always be found at his office in the Pierce building over Griggsby's grocery store.

The Chataqua Literary and Scientific circle have organized a class in this city to meet once a week. The meeting to-night will be at the residence of Dr. Goben at 7 o'clock.

We are glad to note the improvements being made at the woolen mills by Bigsby Bros. This is a permanent and growing institution at this place, and should be carefully fostered by all parties.

Kirksville needs a canning establishment. Why buy and pay freight on sweet corn, tomatoes, apples and small fruits that are put up in the east, when we have every means at hand to do this work here.

We learn that Mr. Galusha, living in Wilmatville neighborhood had his house and contents destroyed by fire last week. Mrs. Galusha was sick at the time and had to be carried from the burning building on a bed.

It is to be hoped that the singers of Kirksville will take an interest in the Choral Union which Mr. S. F. Craven hopes to form, the first meeting of which will be held this evening at the Presbyterian church. All are invited.

The church going people of Kirksville will please take notice, that by action of the Pastor's Conference, from this Monday morning, March 9th, and until further notice, it is proposed to begin evening services in the several churches at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Our enterprising friend Horace Sheeks, who is an enthusiast in the poultry business, received Wednesday a coop of the finest Plymouth Rocks, ever brought to this county. They are the Congress strain and bred by the celebrated poultry man L. G. Biggs at Columbia, Mo.

There is a little spot about two yards square in the street in front of Hannibal's Grocery, that has been a great comfort to us this week. It was macadamized last fall during the muddy weather. Come around, look at it, and see how distinctly it stands out from the surrounding mud.

The Wabash railroad company was sued by the prosecuting attorney of Chariton county, for not erecting and maintaining a depot at Sumner in conformity with the law requiring such an institution at all places where there are crossings or intersections of railroads. Suit was instituted for $15,000; the company's receiver wants to compromise for $2,500.

Prof. McAdon will open a school in the art of reading music to be organized at the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening. He proposes in this to do a great deal of foundation work leading his pupils gradually but surely upward to the ability to do as well as to know. As this is the Prof's specialty we bespeak for him the success that he deserves.

Vol. 1—No. 1 of the Burwell Bell is on the shelves. It is a neat six column quarto, and is edited and published at Burwell, Neb., by our enterprising friend and former fellow townsman L. M. Hart. It starts out with an excellent advertising patronage which speaks volumes for the town, and we bespeak for him that abundant success that energy and merit deserve.

A young man by the name of David Voorhies, living about three miles east of Greenport was arrested Monday for breaking into the drug store of Billy McKeehan, at the above place, Sunday night. He also attempted to break into the dry goods store of Tice & Parker but was frightened away by W. S. Gatlin, who hearing a noise, caused by his breaking the window glass, went out to see what was the matter when the young man fled. McKeehan's drug store had been broken into two or three times during the winter, and suspicions were directed toward young Voorhies. When the constable went out to his father's farm he found the young man out about the premises, who made a full confession; and returned a pocket book he had taken out of the show case. He was taken to Lancaster Tuesday morning by deputy sheriff Payton.
